

A Community Zoom Meeting Regarding

The COVID-19 Vaccines and the Implications for Our Community

February 18, 2021 at 6:00 pm

The Lincoln Branch NAACP and Community Partners are hosting an online session to answer your questions about whether to get a COVID-19 vaccine. The pros and cons of the vaccines will be discussed. Speakers also will address any concerns you may have about your own health, your family's health and the community's well-being. This information is being offered to assist you as you make this important health decision.

The session also will provide information about the vaccines being offered in Lancaster County, the timetable and options you may have for getting vaccinated.

The Panelists will include:

Dannette Smith, CEO, Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services

Dr. Nada Fadal, Associate Professor of Internal Medicine, UNMC

Representatives Lincoln Lancaster County Health Department
